IBSAR SCHOOL OF LAW has vision to provide holistic learning experience to students. All the teachers and department do not restrict to only tradition methods of teaching learning. The institution has developed mechanism for experiential learning, participative learning, peer learning, team teaching, case law method and problem solving methodologies are used for enhancing learning experiences to provide them holistic teaching learning experience. Following are students centric method teachers during last five years

- Experiential learning:

1) Moot Court:- students learn how to research and prepare legal arguments, as well as how to present those arguments in a persuasive manner. Additionally, moot court competitions provide law students with the opportunity to practice their advocacy skills in front of a panel of judges. Faculty uses real time cases and create different scenario to students for making thinking explored.

2) Court Visit:- The visit was to help the student in understanding the role of court in dispensing justice in any case, We held the court visit for experiential learning. The proceeding of the courts the factual legal field knowledge collected by the students.

- Participative learning:-

1) Group Discussion:- The group discussion were student come together and solves their study materials related questions

2) Seminar:- The institution held the seminar for update their skill and knowledge of law. The seminar gave the good moral exposure to the students.

3) Debt:- Debt competition has increase students confidence and uplift their skill for practical knowledge

- Peer Learning :- This method promotes collaborative learning, where students explain concepts to each other, which can reinforce their understanding and provide different perspectives. The intelligent students in the subject or advance student in the subject discuss with important topics. Advance Student Personally solves the low scoring students query. And help them to uplift their academic percentage.

- Problem Solving Methodologies:- Institution gives the issues or question to students to solve the and give appropriate answer. Problem-based learning (PBL) and similar methodologies focus on presenting students with real or simulated problems to solve. This approach encourages critical thinking, teamwork, and the application of knowledge to find solutions.
- Case Law Method: The institution provide studying real-world cases by our practitioner faculty, who uses their real time case example with students where they can know about more depth of case and making decisions or recommendations based on the facts and principles presented in these cases. This method encourages critical analysis and decision-making skills in the students.
- Team Teaching: Institute provide multiple instructors working together to teach a class. This approach allows for a more diverse set of expertise, teaching styles, and perspectives, which can lead to a richer and more engaging learning experience for students.

The benefits of these student-centric methods include increased student engagement, improved retention of information, the development of critical thinking skills, and better preparation for real-world challenges. They also cater to various learning styles, allowing students to approach their education in ways that best suit their strengths and preferences.
